Centrepieces

When it comes to reception decor, all eyes will be on the table centrepieces. Gorgeous floral arrangements not only add prettiness and wow factor to your table, but are also a great way to emphasise your wedding theme – whether it's tall, structured displays for a classically elegant wedding, or a loose arrangement of wildflowers for a rustic affair. Think outside the vase to create a completely unique centrepiece – consider housing your flowers in metallic tins, tea pots, milk jugs, wine bottles, bird cages, wooden boxes or vintage glass decorated with ribbon or lace. You could even display your floral centrepieces in mini terracotta pots that your guests can take home as favours.
